VII. HLAC Response Timeframe

Due to the unique circumstances of each inspection, additional work and research may need to be completed before the HLAC Accreditation Sub-Committee can respond after an inspection or after receiving remediation (corrective) materials. This process can take up to three (3) weeks to complete.

VIII. HLAC Unannounced Re-Inspections

HLAC reserves the right to perform an unannounced re-inspection at an HLAC accredited laundry at any time during regular business hours which may affect its accreditation status. If the re-inspection shows that HLAC Standards are not met, accreditation may be revoked.

XI. Acknowledgment

By signing this agreement, the laundry organization agrees to the terms set forth in this document as well as the HLAC Accreditation Inspection Process Guide. It further acknowledges understanding of the HLAC Mission Statement, Inspection Process and Accreditation Standards for Processing Reusable Textiles for Use in Healthcare Facilities, 2016 Edition, as published on the HLAC's website at www.hlacnet.org.

By checking this box and typing my name below, I am electronically signing the agreement.

IX. HLAC Policy - Reaccreditations

Reaccreditation inspections can be scheduled 60 days prior to and up to the expiration date of their current accreditation expiration date. Laundry organizations that do not complete their reaccreditation during this timeframe will lose their accreditation.

On the day after their accreditation expiration date, the laundry organization's name will be removed from the HLAC website and all marketing stating they are HLAC Accredited must be stopped immediately.

X. HLAC Inspection Remediation (Corrections)

Remediation (corrections) may be allowed for laundry organizations that do not qualify for accreditation during its inspection depending upon the extent of the failures.

The laundry organization will be allowed up to 15 business days from the date of the HLAC inspection results letter to remediate (correct) HLAC Standards failures; or in special circumstances, the Accreditation Sub-Committee may provide the laundry organization up to 45 days to remediate based on the extent of the remediation (corrections).

Laundry organizations that do NOT submit remediation (corrections) within the designated time will have their accreditation revoked and will not be able to re-apply for accreditation for a period of six months.
